'Gripping and unusual detective story, vivid and poignant' - Literary Any bloody death will lead Inspectors etin Ikmen and Mehmet Sleyman out onto the dark streets of

Istanbul. On 21 January, a half-decapitated corpse in the poor multicultural district of Tarlabasi poses a particularly frustrating and gruesome mystery. But as the months pass and the violence increases, it turns into a hunt for that rare phenomenon in the golden city on the Bosphorus: a serial killer. Desperate to uncover the killer's twisted logic as the body count rises, Ikmen and Sleyman find only more questions. How are the victims connected? What is the significance of the number 21? And how many Istanbulis must die before they find the answers?

What readers are saying about Body Count: 'Barbara Nadel has written another fascinating story in her addictive series of Cetin Ikmen' 'One of the best in this excellent and unusual crime series' 'If you like intrigue and mystery this book is for you'
